

The Trinity CertTESOL: Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

The Trinity College London Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CertTESOL) is a Level 5* initial teaching qualification designed to equip new and developing practitioners with the basic knowledge and skills they need for teaching English language.

The Trinity CertTESOL provides an introduction to the theory and practice of contemporary English language teaching and an insight into the challenges facing learners and teachers.

Improve career prospects

The CertTESOL is suitable for aspiring teachers from any background who are attracted to the English language teaching profession. Choosing a career in TESOL offers teachers opportunities to work at home and internationally and to experience life in different cultures.

The Trinity CertTESOL is accepted by the British Council and other international teaching organisations around the world as an initial English language teaching certificate.

Assessment summary

Unit 1: Teaching skills	This unit covers the practical skill of teaching and includes observations where course participants watch experienced teachers, plus six hours where they are observed teaching. Featuring feedback and reflection, the unit gives new teachers both teaching knowledge and practical classroom experience.
Unit 2: Language awareness & skills	This unit builds knowledge of language itself, including lexis, grammar, phonology and discourse. The unit also looks at assessment of language skills and the different varieties of English around the world.
Unit 3: Learner profile	This unit covers one-to-one teaching and assessment and involves diagnosis of a real learners' needs. Course participants then plan learning to help learners in their areas of need.
Unit 4: Materials assignment	Unit 4 looks at classroom materials and supports teachers' ability to use, adapt, produce and evaluate materials in a classroom setting.
Unit 5: Unknown language	This unit covers what it's like to learn a new language, putting course participants in the place of learners. This helps them build empathy with learners and also demonstrates effective teaching techniques.

Entrants for CertTESOL courses must have qualifications and/or experience that would allow entrance to higher education, with minimum English language proficiency of CEFR level C1 or above.
